

President And Mamie Expected To Be At Farm For Anniversary

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower had another comfortable night and his condition continues to progress "very satisfactorily," his doctors reported today.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty added that the President is doing "increasingly more walking" and spends perhaps three or four hours a day out of bed, including the time he spends sitting up for meals.

The President also has been given a medical OK to have steak twice a day if he wishes.

Today's first medical bulletin, issued at Walter Reed Army Hospital shortly after 8 a.m., said: "The President had another comfortable night. He slept almost continuously for almost nine hours."

Makes Progress

"His temperature is 96.2, his pulse is 78, his blood pressure 112 over 68, his respiration is 18 — all of which are normal. He is holding his previously announced weight (162)."

"His condition continues to progress very satisfactorily. His morale and spirits are high."

Eisenhower had no scheduled callers today except the usual aides. These included chief assistant Sherman Adams.

Hagerty noted the President has been sleeping better since the wire stitches from his intestinal operation were removed last weekend. Previously medical bulletins said the President slept nine hours both Sunday and Monday nights.

There still was no word on exactly when Eisenhower will leave the hospital and go to Gettysburg, Pa., although he and Mrs. Eisenhower are expected to be at their farm for their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, Mrs. Eisenhower's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud, already is at the farm.

Are Coming Here

Eisenhower most likely will get out of the hospital Friday or Saturday and complete his recovery at Gettysburg. How long he will stay there isn't certain.

Apparently the President's postponed meeting with Prime Minister Nehru of India is going to be postponed for some time.

There was nothing definite on that, either, however.

The White House announced last night receipt of a message from Nehru urging Eisenhower to take good care of himself but skipping the matter of fixing a new date for the talk he and the President were to have had early next month.

Eisenhower, in a letter to Nehru agreeing to postpone the discussions, strongly urged the Indian Premier to suggest a new date. Nehru did not immediately do so, however, presumably because of a crowded schedule.

CHERRY GROWERS MEET SATURDAY

The annual summer meeting of the Pennsylvania Red Cherry Growers Association will be held Saturday evening, President William Boyer Lower, Biglerville R. 2, announced today.

A supper will be served starting at 6:30 o'clock at Bucher's restaurant, Bendersville, and a business meeting will be held at 8:30 o'clock at the Biglerville elementary school.

President Lower said fruit growers and "all others interested" are invited to attend either, or both, of the sessions.

Notices of the meeting have been sent to more than 200 members of the state-wide association. Cherry growers from the northeastern part of the state will speak at the meeting on cultural practices and marketing of cherries as carried out in that section of the state.

Adams and Erie counties are the two largest cherry producing counties in the state.

Reports will also be presented on the state and national Cherry Pie Baking contests, with the reports to be illustrated by slides taken at the two events.

Eisenhowers Are Expected To Arrive At Farm Saturday

Preparations were being made today for Gettysburg to resume its role of last fall—temporary "capital" of the United States.

President and Mrs. Eisenhower are expected here Saturday and plans for the President indicate he may spend some time here recuperating from his recent abdominal operation.

White House communications men were here today to re-open communications headquarters and the press room in the Hotel Gettysburg auditorium which was converted to that use last fall and served as news headquarters for the nation from early November until the President returned to the White House at Washington December 18.

The Gettysburg Times learned from an authoritative source today that no decision has yet been made for the President to use the Gettysburg Post Office or the President's office at Gettysburg College, where radio and television facilities installed last fall continue to be available for his Gettysburg office.

Colonel Robert Schulz, military aide to President Eisenhower, was in Gettysburg Monday to investigate the possibility of using the National Guard Armory here as his headquarters.

The announcement was made Monday afternoon at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington that the President would come to his Gettysburg farm home to convalesce after his discharge from the hospital at the end of this week.

The Eisenhowers will drive to the farm Saturday and on Sunday will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary there.

There has not yet been any announcement as to whether the President will hold a news conference during his stay at the farm but White House reporters continue to press for an announcement from the President on his second term plans. That statement may come during the President's stay here.

James C. Hagerty, press secretary, is expected here Saturday.

FCC May Limit Ultra High TV Frequency To Few Channels

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission today charted the course of U.S. television toward possible exclusive operation on the ultra high frequency (UHF) channels, numbered 14 through 83.

The shift could change the face of telecasting a decade hence. A commission announcement that it will consider the possibility of eventually putting all or most of TV on UHF involved an admission that mixing the newer UHF channels with the older VHF channels, numbered 2 through 13, in the same community hasn't worked out as expected.

As an immediate curative for that, the commission committed itself to a policy of "demixing" such communities, where feasible, in order to equalize station competition and give UHF operators a chance to survive where they have not been surviving when confronted with VHF competitors.

The proposed general shift to UHF is a long-term proposal, involving at least a couple more years of FCC consideration and, if finally approved, a minimum of 10 years of transition in which VHF stations might be required to telecast simultaneously on a UHF channel, while the public was changing over to UHF receivers.

The commission said the transition period would have to be sufficiently long "to cover the useful life of VHF-only receivers in the hands of the public" and permit amortization of VHF transmitting equipment.

FCC suggested the shift could be made on a nationwide basis, or by making states east of the Mississippi River all-UHF, leaving use of the wider-range VHF operation to the West's big open spaces.

Commercial television was launched on UHF in 1941. The 70 new UHF channels were not created until 1952. The result: of 500 TV outlets now operating, 400 are VHF; of 37 million TV sets in the hands of the public, some 30 million can tune in VHF programs only.

In the cities where the channels were intermixed, most UHF operators have found the going difficult. Many have closed down.

Hence, FCC made public a series of proposals for reshuffling channel assignments designed to make commercial television all UHF in Elmira, N.Y.; Evansville, Ind.; Hartford, Conn.; Madison, Wis.; and Peoria and Springfield, Ill.

Its proposed changes would make New Orleans, La., predominantly UHF; Providence, R.I., Charleston, S.C., Miami Fla., the Norfolk Va., area and Duluth, Minn.-Superior, Wis., predominantly VHF; and Mobile, Ala., all-UHF.

Plane Crashes Near Beach Hotel

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A small plane groping its way through a heavy haze crash landed on the beach in front of the Traymore Hotel early today. The pilot suffered a scraped nose but his two passengers escaped injury.

Police said the Piper Cub, which had taken off from this resort for a flight to Philadelphia, ran into the thick mist and tried to head back.

Ray Curry, 49, of Forge Rd., Glen Mills, Pa., the pilot, told police he circled the area for 20 minutes then decided to follow the lights along the boardwalk and return to Bader Field here.

Any possible danger to the boardwalk strollers, he chose to land on the deserted beach.

Damage to the plane was estimated at about $1,500. The two passengers were George McCoy, 1502 Spring Lane, Bellevue Manor, Wilmington, Del., and Alfred Smith, R. 1, Boothwyn, Pa.

HERE AND THERE

In 1903 there were 466 fire-works deaths in the United States. Last year there was only one. Quite a record of progress.

Back in 1903 a rather ridiculous looking machine was just sputtering into being. Last year that machine — evolving from the ungainly horseless carriage into the sleek and powerful modern automobile — claimed 407 lives during the Fourth of July holiday.

Thus the net gain in our efforts to avoid holiday self-destruction seems to be about zero. Yet there is a lesson to be learned here.

Fireworks deaths on the Fourth have been almost eliminated because thinking persons revolted at such senseless killing, and state by state the sale and use of dangerous fireworks were prohibited.

No one, of course, is advocating that the sale or use of automobiles be banned. But we strongly urge the outlawing of their misuse.

Most people want to use their cars safely. But in every society there is always a minority of reckless and irresponsible drivers who turn a deaf ear to all appeals for prudent and commonsense behavior.

It is for this group that the National Safety Council and the International Association of Chiefs of Police have jointly recommended a rigid law enforcement policy by all police agencies during the Fourth of July celebration.

We strongly support this recommendation. A traffic accident emergency faces this country, with a new all-time high death toll in prospect. It is time to stop temporizing with this problem. The Fourth of July holiday is a good time to start getting tough.

$45,000 DAMAGE WHEN CARGO OF TV SETS UPSETS

Damage totaled $45,000, according to state police estimate, when a tractor-trailer ran off the road and upset at the W. E. Jordan farm, about a half-mile north of here on the Harrisburg Rd., north of the Rock Creek bridge, this morning at 2:45 o'clock.

Ralph Daniel Bowers, 31, Woodstock, Va., driver of the south-bound vehicle owned by the Mason-Dixon Lines Inc., Kingsport, Tenn., suffered a few bruises and was "shaken up" when the cab of the new tractor trailer was practically demolished.

He told police another tractor-trailer, headed north, appeared to jack-knife in front of him, and to avoid the other vehicle, Bowers drove his tractor-trailer off the berm of the highway.

Snapped Off Utility Pole
When it struck the berm, slipping from the night's rain, the tractor-trailer upset in the Jordan meadow, after ripping down about 50 feet of the wire fence and snapping off a Metropolitan Edison Company pole.

The pole tore away from the wires as it fell and there was no damage to the wires themselves.

Mrs. Jordan, aroused by the crash, called to the driver, who then used the telephone at the Jordan house to call the owners of the truck before going to Gettysburg with state police. The Mason-Dixon Company sent a crew here later today to secure the loaded trailer.

Hauling TV Sets
Police said the load was made up of a number of types of articles including a number of new television sets.

The driver of the other truck apparently continued on after the crash, police said.

While bruised, Bowers did not seek medical treatment after crawling out of the smashed cab.

DANCE FRIDAY AT "REC" PARK
The first in a planned series of dances for "teen-agers and adults" will be held Friday evening at the Recreation field under sponsorship of the Recreation Association.

Chester Hilger, recreation director, said plans call for similar dances to be held semi-monthly during the summer season from 8:30 to 11 o'clock on alternate Friday nights.

Howard Shoemaker and Donald Bickle will serve as proctors for the first dance this Friday night. Music will be provided by a juke box used for the winter dances at the high school and the dancing will be on the basketball court at the Recreation field.

The dances are open to all persons residing within the Gettysburg Joint School district area. Hilger added. Refreshments will be sold at the equipment room of the Recreation field.

In the event of rain the dance will be postponed until Friday, July 13, in order not to conflict with the firemen's carnival.

"Ag" Teachers Will Take To Woods
Adams and Franklin County agricultural education teachers will go into the South Mountains Thursday and Friday for a two-day course on farm forestry management.

The teachers will meet at the Michaux Forest district office at 8 o'clock Thursday morning to begin the two-day session which will include visits to the state forest nursery at Mont Alto, a course of study in tree identification, and study of the methods of "harvesting" the crop of timber in the mountains.

Young Adults Plan Future Activities
The community young adults are planning a swimming party, a Friday the 13th dance and a theater party.

A swimming session at the Gettysburg College pool will follow the July 10 business meeting at the YWCA at 8 o'clock.

The July Friday the 13th dance will be held in the SCA building at the college. High school seniors and those through the age of 25 are invited. There is no admission.

Theater party plans include a performance at one of the local summer playhouses.

The meeting scheduled for July 3 has been cancelled because of the firemen's carnival.

Gardners R. D. Man Gets Pen For Forgery

A defendant with a previous record was given a term in the Eastern Penitentiary Tuesday after entering a guilty plea at a session of miscellaneous Cumberland County court in Carlisle.

Lloyd, the court was told, had served three previous terms in the penitentiary. James R. Humer, court-appointed counsel for Lloyd, told the court the defendant had been drinking when he forged the checks. Judge Jacobs, however, cited Lloyd's previous record as justifying a term in the penitentiary.

EVADE BAN ON SALES TO REDS

MOSCOW (AP) — An American manufacturer of aircraft products has arrived here with a plenitude of equipment to show Soviet air and trade experts. The equipment is among the things NATO bars from sale to Soviet bloc countries. William P. Lear, who flew into Moscow yesterday in his personal plane, said the Soviet Union is interested in buying automatic pilots and flight control machinery such as his company manufactures.

Lear said the headquarters of his firm had been moved from Los Angeles and Santa Monica, Calif., to Geneva, in neutral Switzerland, and indicated the Swiss factory could sell equipment to the Russians. Lear also has factories at Grand Rapids, Mich., and Elyria, Ohio.

But in Santa Monica, Richard M. Mock, president of Lear, Inc., denied that the company had any intention of selling any equipment — embargoed or not — to Russia. He also asserted the firm had not moved its headquarters to Geneva. Lear, who is chairman of the board of Lear, Inc., told reporters here he understood negotiations were under way for Russia to buy three French Caravelle jet passenger transports that use his equipment. He did not explain how such a transaction would be accomplished, but said "the embargoes will not last long."

BALTIMORE (AP) — Luria Engineering Co. of Bethlehem, Pa., has been awarded a sub-contract for building a hangar at Friendship International Airport. The steel-framed hangar and maintenance shop will be fabricated at the Luria plant in Bethlehem and shipped for assembly in August. The general contract for $685,000 is held by Redding and Co., Inc., of Baltimore. The cost covers the hangar, foundations, grading and surfacing the surrounding apron and underground structures.

GUATEMALA (AP) — The Guatemalan government claims knowledge of an exiles' plot to invade this country late this month from El Salvador and Nicaragua.

Security Chief Ismael Ortiz Orellana said last night the army was expecting the invasion "at any moment." He declared the plotters wanted to overthrow the government. Ortiz Orellana said the conspiracy was linked with a student demonstration here Monday night that ended in six deaths.

ONE IS KILLED AND SEVEN HURT IN CAFE BLAST

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Escaping gas in the basement of a cafe apparently ignited yesterday, blowing up the cinder block building, killing one man and injuring seven other persons.

Police said an unidentified workman struck as gas line while digging a sewer trench, allowing gas to fill the basement of Monti's cafe at 215 W. Philadelphia Ave. The blast hurled cinder blocks into the next street, one of them crushing the roof of a car, and tossed debris hundreds of feet. Some 12-foot planks landed in the limbs of a nearby oak tree, 30 feet from the ground.

A customer in the cafe, Joseph M. Hall, 61, of 202 Robertson Ave., was blown across the street. He remains in critical condition today at St. Francis Hospital, Trenton, N. J., with head and throat injuries.

Killed was Joseph Monti, 68, of Main St., Tullytown, father of the cafe's owner.

The owner, Ferdinand Monti, 40, and his wife, Phyllis, also were injured. Mrs. Monti was treated for arm and back abrasions at Mercer Hospital in Trenton and released. Her husband was detained with a broken leg.

One fireman was treated for an injured hand at Mercer Hospital and released.

"THE FAIREST FLOWER"

There's a flower in life's garden . . . far more radiant and sweet . . . than all the other flowers . . . I have ever chanced to meet . . . I'm referring to a lady . . . who is everything to me . . . and if you ever met her . . . I know you would agree . . . when she speaks I hear a love song . . . when she smiles the sun breaks through . . . when I share her warm embraces . . . it's as though my dreams come true . . . she is kind, sincere and tender . . . and she has a magic way . . . of bringing forth the brighter side . . . however dark the day . . . jewels do not care her fingers . . . just a plain gold wedding band . . . but it outshines any diamond . . . just because it's on her hand . . . wife and mother of my children . . . girl on whom I can rely . . . she is life's fairest flower . . . and will be till I die.

Greetings were extended to the group of 40 persons by Mrs. Lloyd Humbert, teacher of the class. Autoharp duets were played by the pastor, the Rev. David S. Kammerer and Mrs. J. Walter Groce. Several solos were sung by Mrs. Groce for her own autoharp accompaniment. The Rev. Mr. Kammerer spoke briefly. A meal was served prior to the program.

Members of the Junior Youth Fellowship of Centenary Methodist Church enjoyed an outing on Tuesday. The group had a wiener roast at noon at the Littlestown Fish and Game Farm, and there was swimming at Crouse's Pool, near town, during the afternoon. There will be no regular meetings of the young people until September. Mrs. Chester S. Byers is the adult supervisor.

Sometimes mothers are lucky — even when it spoils their fun. A South St. mother accompanied her children to the Recreation Field, and the youngsters, engaged in archery, challenged their mother to try.

After some discussion she took the bow and arrow, and sent an arrow whistling into the exact center of the target, to the joy of her children and her own amazement. She found the shooting fun, but doesn't dare try again — for fear the youngsters will learn that mother knows nothing whatever about use of a bow and arrow and never handled one before.

1,000 Persons Parade As United Spanish War Vets End Four-Day Convention: Swinging along behind the martial music of eight bands and drum corps, delegates to the 27th annual state encampment of United Spanish-American War Veterans held a military parade here this afternoon with more than 1,000 persons in line.

The parade closed the four-day sessions of the veterans and their auxiliaries.

The veterans closed their business sessions Friday afternoon with the election and installation of officers and the selection of the place of meeting for 1932. On the third ballot James D. Bachman of Hazleton was elected department commander.

Engagement Of McSherrytown Girl Announced: Announcement is made today by Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Colgan, North street, McSherrytown, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen E. Colgan, to Richard S. Codori, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Codori, York street.

Foamite To Be Tried Out: Gettysburg's new piece of fire fighting equipment, the last word in foamite trucks, will be demonstrated before the public at 6:30 o'clock tonight on South Washington street, opposite the Annie M. Warner hospital.

The new truck will generate 1,500 gallons of foamite suds out of its storage tank of 115 gallons of water to extinguish gasoline and oil fires. Gettysburg is the only department in Pennsylvania to be equipped with this piece of fire fighting apparatus and one of the few places where such a truck is used.

The new truck was constructed by Joseph E. Codori and Arthur E. Hutchison, members of the local department. It cost the local company approximately $2,500.

Judge Samuel McCurdy Swope, Redford Jurist, Dies At His Home Here: Publisher Is Dead: Samuel McCurdy Swope, 79, for fifty-five years a member of the Adams county bar and for twenty years terms president judge of the fifty-first judicial district, comprising Adams and Fulton counties, died at his home on Baltimore street Thursday morning.

Judge Swope descended from German paternal ancestry and from Scotch Irish maternal lineage. His grandfather, Adam Swope, an early settler in Gettysburg, was a tanner and his father, John A. Swope, was a maker of saddle trees in Gettysburg where he spent his entire life.

Judge Swope began his study of law under the preceptorship of the late Judge David Willis, of Gettysburg, eminent lawyer and jurist.

Warren Lavere Hafer, retired Gettysburg newspaper publisher, died at his home on Carlisle street Wednesday evening of a kidney condition.

After completing his education he began reading law with the late Charles S. Duncan.

While pursuing his study of law Mr. Hafer became interested in the newspaper publishing business. An interesting story of how he acquired an interest in the The Gettysburg Times in 1909 is told by his friends, Ralph R. Buvinger, now connected with the chamber of commerce at Ocean City, New Jersey, was then owner of The Times. With a Pullman make automobile, then one of the best machines on the market, Mr. Hafer purchased an interest in the newspaper from Mr. Buvinger.

A few months later he acquired full ownership.

When Mr. Hafer took over the active management of the paper, its circulation was padded with nearly 2,000 mythical subscribers. A few years later however the new owner had a paid in advance subscription list in excess of 3,000.

One of Mr. Hafer's first ambitions after he got the paper "on its feet" was to erect a suitable building for the plant. For many years the newspaper plant was located in the northwest corner of the square in the Eckert building where work was done in cramped

Today's Talk

THE PROTECTING EYE

In the Bible is a statement that our Heavenly Father notes even the sparrow's fall. During the past winter I often wondered where all the small birds and animals of the wild were when the cold winds blew and snow piled in great drifts. They were no to be seen, but when the sun came out there they were, happily chirping in the warm light. Call it Nature, but it seems to me it is more than that. It's the protecting Eye!

Henry Ford once told me of an experience he had when he sold a big plot of land on which was built a great plant for the government. On it there was a thicket of trees that had to be removed. It was the home of scores of squirrels. Mr. Ford offered $5.00 for each squirrel that the boys could bring to him unharmed. Then he took them all and gave them a new home in a wooded place that he owned, giving each its freedom anew.

I recently read in a Michigan newspaper of a nest that bluejays had built in the construction part of a $500,000 restaurant, but upon its discovery the builder stopped all work and gave orders that it was not to go on until the eggs hatched, and the little family should move to new quarters. Tools were dropped and the work initiated. "We'll have to sweat this one out," said the kindly builder!

I wonder if there is not something very significant in the calls and songs of birds. Are they, too, ever under the protecting Eye of the Father of us all? It would seem so. What makes that small "Jenny" when so constant in song, after locating the house built for her, or discovered in some quaint protected spot? The Creator of this remarkable universe had the all-seeing Eye. The Eye over all. That builder, who noted the bluejay's nest, and who undoubtedly lost a great deal of money through this kind act, had more than money — something better than gold — a heart of gold.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "People"

SUPERHIGHWAYS
MAY BE READY
BY '58 SUMMER

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional sponsors of the giant highway construction bill predicted today the nation's motorists may be riding on some of the new superhighways by the summer of 1958.

The $3-billion-dollar measure completed its congressional course yesterday and was sent to President Eisenhower. He is expected to sign it promptly, possibly late this week.

There has been speculation during the long, rough ride of the bill through Congress that it might be at least three years before any noticeable construction could take place on the 41,000-mile four-lane interstate system, the key provision of the bill.

Planning, Rights Of Way

However, Sen. Francis Case (R-SD), who has worked on the bill this year and last, told a reporter, "We may be surprised at how speedily the states get going on this."

Case said he believes that in fiscal 1957, the 12-month period which starts next Sunday, most of the work on the interstate system would involve planning and purchase of rights-of-way.

But he said many states already have made such progress on this preliminary work with limited funds already available for the interstate system.

Thirteen-Year Period

He predicted that within two years considerable construction will have been undertaken and the results in modernizing the nation's highways will begin to show.

The bill includes 25 billion dollars in federal funds for the interstate network to be distributed among the states on a 90-10 matching basis. The states would kick in about $2,600,300,000 as their share.

In the first year, $1,175,000,000 is allotted to the system and after that it builds up rapidly. Construction is programmed for a 13-year period.

The measure provides for a $4,800,000,000 increase in taxes to be paid by highway users during the next 16 years. One of the tax boosts adds 1 cent to the present 2-cent-a-gallon federal tax on gasoline and motor fuels.

That tax, and others, would be effective Sunday if Eisenhower signs the bill before that time.

TWO LEGS OF NORTHWEST'S
ECONOMY SHORT

By SAM DAWSON

SEATTLE (AP)—The three-legged stool of the Pacific northwest's economy is getting a little lopsided today.

In recent years agriculture, forest products and industrial plants have contributed about equal shares to the dollar income volume of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and western Montana.

This year the agriculture leg is shrinking—the winter wheat crop is off by about one-third of its 10-year average; and the fruit crops was damaged by winter freezes.

One Leg Shorter

The forest products leg is a bit shorter than last year—lumber shipments and prices have weakened as home building around the nation slackened; even plywood has retreated from its lofty peak.

But the industrial leg is still growing, pushed along by the aircraft industry and the top demand for aluminum, chemicals and electronic devices.

At the Boeing aircraft plants around here they are still adding to their working force—now well above 40,000.

The Boeing payroll is the pride and joy of Seattle business—and the loss of it would be the greatest nightmare. Shareholders note that first quarter earnings were

Cosmic Rays Echo
In Deep Wells

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—The plant engineer of a shoe factory says he is convinced that cosmic rays echo in the artesian well that reaches 400 feet below the basement of the plant.

Scientists have been studying reaction of the well to cosmic rays. It has also been known for 10 years that water in the well is agitated by earthquakes.

Elmer E. Rexin, the engineer, says that cosmic rays cause unusual sounds to come from the well. He thinks that as the cosmic beams bombard the earth they strike the surface of nearby Lake Michigan and travel along it to the well by way of an underground water passage connecting lake and well.

The impulses are picked up by shielded and insulated wires dipping 150 feet below the surface of the well water and are transmitted to a loud speaker that converts them into sound. An attached cathode ray oscilloscope shows them as beams of light.

WIRED FOR TROUBLE

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP)—A helpful patrolman stopped a motorist here and helped him tighten up a loose license plate with wire. Both were embarrassed when they found out that a few days before another motorist had been fined for using wire to attach a plate.

pleasantly above a year ago, and expect the same to be announced next month for the first half.

Watch Out For Termites

But William M. Allen, Boeing president, has a long memory as well as an eye on future needs.

"We'll probably make a capital outlay of 90 million dollars in the next three years," he says, "just to keep abreast or ahead of our competition. That already has involved getting 17 banks in Seattle, Wichita, Chicago, New York, Pittsburgh and San Francisco to open a line of 75 million dollars in credit to run through the next 12 months."

Allen's long memory goes back to 1945 when military aircraft contracts were canceled by the whole sale.

If termites don't get at that industrial leg, and if the weather should change and smile on the farmers, the economy shouldn't be very shaky in the northwest.

AT CONFERENCE

By JACK BELL

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Vice President Nixon turned up today as the forgotten man of 20 Republican governors and White House officials urging President Eisenhower to run again.

Nixon's name was left off a formal statement forwarded to Eisenhower by GOP state executives attending the 48th annual Governors Conference.

They expressed their "wholehearted approval of the administration of our great Republican President" and pledged "our full support for his renomination and re-election."

Merely An Overnight

GOP Gov. Fred Hall of Kansas, who said he thought up the round-robin signed by all except absentees, George N. Craig of Indiana, contended that the omission of Nixon as a candidate for second place on the ticket was merely an oversight.

Former Gov. Howard Pyle of Arizona, an Eisenhower aide who got advance White House clearance on the statement, said it just hadn't occurred to him that Nixon wasn't to be mentioned.

Pyle said he had not seen the text of the resolution before he called White House aides—who obviously were headed by chief of staff Sherman Adams—to get advance approval of the proposed action by the Republican governors. He said he got that approval "in principle."

"I never saw the resolution

Every woman likes to be remembered on "her" day.

And, if you're away there's no better remembrance than a long distance call.

Long distance is fast and so, so personal. The way to a woman's heart is through thoughtfulness... and what could be more thoughtful than a call on her special day.

So telephone your birthday greetings this year. It's well worth the low cost. And if you call after 6:00 PM or all day Sunday, when rates are still lower, you'll find it's even more economical.

Robin Roberts And Phillies Stop Braves' Streak At 11 Games With 4-2 Victory; Chisolm Get Ninth

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Who else but Robin Roberts would be the pitcher to bring Milwaukee out of the clouds?
The big right-hander, practically carrying the Philadelphia Phillies all by himself for six years, may no longer be the best in the National League, but "he's among 'em."

Roberts proved it again last night, winning his third straight after a disturbing four-game losing streak. He hung the Braves 4-2 on a five-hitter and snipped their winning streak at 11 games.

Roberts was the first pitcher to go the distance against Milwaukee in 14 games.

Rain Idles Redlegs
Milwaukee lost only half a game from its lead (now 1½ games) since rain idled runner-up Cincinnati at Pittsburgh. But third-place Brooklyn closed to within 2½ games by thumping the Chicago Cubs 10-5 as Al (Rube) Walker drove in six runs with a homer, triple and double. Pittsburgh took fourth by a percentage point from the St. Louis Cardinals, who were whipped 3-0 by the New York Giants and Ruben Gomez's three-hitter.

In the American League, first-place New York won an 8-4 decision over Kansas City. Runners-up Chicago made it nine in a row with Jack Harshman's three-hitter beating Boston 4-1. Third-place Cleveland ran its streak to seven games—the Tribe's best winning string since 1954—in a comeback 4-3 victory over Baltimore. Rain halted Washington at Detroit at a 2-1 tie in the fifth inning.

Roberts, squaring his record at 8-0, gave up a first-inning hit, then retired 17 in a row before the Braves rallied to tie it 2-2 in the seventh. The Phils came right back with two in the eighth off loser Ray Crone. A throwing error by left fielder Bobby Thomson brought the tie-breaker across. Elmer Valo singled home the clincher.

Struck Out Seven
Roberts, who hasn't walked a man in 18 innings, struck out seven in his 10th complete game and third straight.

Walker, rubbing for sore-thumbed catcher Roy Campanella, broke a 4-1 tie in the sixth with his two-run homer, his first of the year. Sal (2-1) Maglie became the first Brooklyn starter to last in 19 games. Jackie Robinson hit a pair of homers for the Dodgers, while Gene Baker and Walt Morin slapped homers for the Chicago. Jim Davis lost it.

St. Louis got just three infield singles off Gomez, who broke his four-game losing streak for a 3-7 record. Two of the hits were by ex-Giants Al Dark and Whitey Lockman. The Giants got two in the first as Wilmer Mizell, losing his third straight for a 7-5 mark, walked the first three men he faced and depleted them.

Mantle 1 For 5
Harshman, who beat Baltimore in a twin one-hitter his last time out, gave up a scoreless inning streak at 20 on a walk and two singles. Jackie Jensen had two of the Sox's hits—getting his second in the ninth as Harshman won his fifth. Tom Brewer, 9-3, gave just three hits in his six frames but they all came in the second when the White Sox scored three on Ted Williams' error and Luis Aparicio's two-run double.

Yogi Berra, Billy Martin and Joe Collins homered for the Yankees as Whitey Ford, trailing 3-1 after two innings, stuck on to win his ninth. Mickey Mantle had one hit in five trips against loser Tom Gorman and Jack Crimian.

Back-to-back seven-inning doubles by Bobby Avila and Gene Woodling scored the winning run for the Indians, who had rallied for three in the sixth to tie it. Early Wynn won his eighth with a five-hitter.

Both Washington and Detroit protested their tie game, which will have to be replayed from the start.

PLAYERS BACK BUCKY HARRIS BUT CAN'T WIN

DETROIT (AP)—Bucky Harris had a vote of player confidence and an improved, though still shaky, position with his boss today, but his Detroit Tigers still are without a victory in 10 games.

The best they could do last night was a 2-2 deadlock with last-place Washington in a contest called by rain in the fifth inning.

Team captain Harvey Kuenn and veteran pitcher Steve Gromek went to bat for their 59-year-old pilot last night. Both said the players are "100 per cent behind Bucky" and added that he is not to blame for the Tigers' recent failures.

In a radio interview before the game, both players blamed injuries for the tailspin that has jolted the club's first-division hopes and sent the Tigers plunging into sixth place.

Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., the club's president, issued a statement in which he said he has no immediate plans to fire either the manager or the coaches.

Earlier, he announced he was "fed up" and criticized what he called lack of spirit and hustle. He said he would "make a change right now" if the club were not up for sale.

The Rotary bounced right back in the third and fourth frames when they crossed the plate four times on Johnson's pair of homers, to take a 4-1 lead after four complete innings.

Both teams hit the scoring column in the fifth frame. The Rotary scored on a couple of infield errors and back-to-back doubles by Mike Codori and Jimmy Davies. The Lions tallied when Howie Miller became the first player to hit a triple in the Little League park. At the beginning of the season Miller was also the first to hit a homerun in the park.

Howie Weikert followed with a single to drive in Miller with the Lions second earned run.

Jimmy Davies, who has hit his way into the batting leaders of the first place team, again was top man in the line up with three hits for three trips to the plate including a pair of doubles and two runs batted.

Little Dick Crist, who had perfect control of the mound for the Lions, gave up nine hits to go down with his third loss without a win.

Jack Kelly Jr. To Try For Scull Title
SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Jack Kelly Jr. is to make a final try this year to win the Olympic sculling gold medal like his father did 36 years ago.

"This is it," said the handsome, 29-year-old brother of movie queen Grace Kelly today as he warmed up on Onondaga Lake for the U.S. Olympic Trials beginning here Thursday. "If I don't make it this year it will be never."

Jack has won seven National single sculls titles, the diamond sculls in England twice, and the Pan-American crown in Mexico but was beaten in the Olympics in both 1948 and 1952.

CONTROVERSY AT SYRACUSE
SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—A heated controversy over the draw for the heavyweight eight-oar crews, marked by charges of "injustice" and "inequality," erupted today on the eve of the U.S. Olympic Rowing Trials.

The veteran Navy coach, Rusky Callow, and Harrison (Stork) Stanford of Cornell were the most outspoken in their criticism of the draw which placed Cornell, Navy's Admirals, Washington and Stanford against each other in the opening heat.

Yale and Wisconsin, two of the other strong contenders, were arrayed in the second heat with a patched-up crew from the Detroit Boat Club which admittedly is planning only a "token race."

"This is the rankest injustice I've seen in 30 years of rowing," said the white-haired Callow, who is coaching the comeback Navy crew which won the eight-oar championship at Helsinki in 1932.

"This is supposed to be a test of endurance but there will be no endurance for Yale and Wisconsin. They'll be able to loaf through their heat and qualify while we'll have to go all out in our heat where every crew is strong."

Clifford (Tippy) Goes, chairman of the Olympic Rowing Committee, said the committee followed normal procedure and if anybody was favored it was just "the luck of the draw."

TWO MENTIONED FOR STATE POST
HARRISBURG (AP)—Two widely known educators were reported today in line for appointment as deputy superintendent of public instruction upon return of Gov. Leader from Europe next week.

They are Dr. Clarence E. Ackley, Camp Hill, consultant on education problems, and Dr. C. Herman Grose, president of California State Teachers College, formerly of Erie.

Each has served previously as deputy superintendent of the department's top level officials under the new superintendent.

Charles H. Boehm, also was expected to include retention of Dr. Ralph C. Swan, New Bloomfield, as another deputy superintendent. He headed the department as acting superintendent for more than a year.

Capitol sources said Dr. Ackley would be placed in charge of professional licensing and Dr. Grose would head the Bureau of Professional Education and Certification.

Dr. Ackley served in the education department during the Democratic Earle administration, starting in 1936 and continuing until 1943.

Dr. Grose was a deputy superintendent for three years during the Republican Fine Administration. Prior to that he was superintendent for three years during years. Dr. Grose has been head of the California State Teachers College since 1952. He is a past president of the Pennsylvania State Education Assn.

FIVE REDLEGS TAKE LEADS IN ALL STAR VOTE

NEW YORK (AP)—The free-swinging Cincinnati Redlegs moved in to take over the lead at five positions today in the voting to pick the National League team for the July 10 All-Star game, replacing such solid favorites of past classics as Red Schoendienst, Roy Campanella, Ernie Banks and Duke Snider.

The latest vote count of fan ballots by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick also put Redlegs in the runner-up spot at the other three positions to be decided by the grandstand managers.

Cincinnati's Johnny Temple took over at second base, edging ahead of Schoendienst, now with the New York Giants, by some 6,500 votes as the commissioner's office forced hurried to complete the overall count by week's end.

McMillan At Short
Roy McMillan now leads at shortstop, topping Chicago's Banks by about 10,000 ballots in the Cincinnati surge while rookie Frank Robinson replaced the St. Louis Cardinals' Rip Repulski as the favorite left-field choice. Ed Bailey scrambled into a near 100,000-vote lead over Campanella, Brooklyn's stand-out catcher, and three-time most valuable player in the NL.

Center fielder Gus Bell, who slipped ahead of Brooklyn's Snider yesterday, padded his lead to a solid margin of about 20,000 votes.

At the other three NL positions, Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski, Ray Jablonski and Wally Post apparently still are within striking distance.

Two AL Races
In the American, only first and third base present a close race, with three standouts over the 100,000-vote mark elsewhere.

Prepare To Harvest Unusual Crop Of Cherries In County

PREPARE TO HARVEST Adams County is preparing to harvest what growers are describing as one of the most unusual crop of cherries in many years.

On an overall picture growers estimate that the crop this year will be about 40 to 50 percent of normal—but the picture varies widely from orchard to orchard and even within orchards on an individual farm—according to reports.

Some fortunate few have reported that they will have the biggest cherry crop in their history, particularly one orchard in the York Springs area.

Other orchards are for all practical purposes "wiped out." Many growers are reporting they have "30 to 40 percent of a crop." Others say they have "from 60 to 70 percent of a crop."

A quick tour through the orchard area itself shows some trees with great quantities of the Montmorency sour cherries reddening the trees—while other trees nearby have only a few cherries visible.

Most growers say "there is no rhyme or reason" for the variations, but at the same time will agree that apparently there was some frost damage—which prevented some cherry trees from producing much fruit, while in other cases it apparently was poor pollination that cut down the amount of cherries.

Because of the wide variations however there will be cherries and possibly, over-all and county wide, a fair crop to be harvested. Many growers also report wide variations in the ripening of their fruit, which indicates that the normal "Fourth of July" beginning of the harvest may be stretched out in various orchards.

While, as usual, most of the orchards will be ready for harvest next week, some may be later—and there is an unusually stretched out ripening period apparent within many orchards.

The unusual situation is expected to lead some orchardists to try their harvest hands by the hour instead of the bucket as in prior years. The "by the hour" payment will hold true in orchards where either there is a "thin" crop on the trees, or where there are wide variations in the ripeness of the fruit.

COURT GETS THE BIRD

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Plans to put screens on windows of U.S. District Court are under consideration. A sparrow flew in during one court session. There were futile attempts to shoo him out. Court went on and annoying chirpings. Finally the sparrow flew out of its own accord and peace returned.

FORMER MENTAL PATIENT ADMITS KILLING WOMAN

MONTICELLO, N. Y. (AP) — A 24-year-old resort hotel houseboy, who reportedly confessed strangling a chambermaid in a quarrel over another man's attentions, was in the Sullivan County jail today under a murder charge.

Sheldon R. Woodridge of Brooklyn, described as a former mental patient, was arraigned here last night before Justice of the Peace Joseph Wassner who ordered him committed to the jail.

Woodridge was arrested yesterday in New York City and brought here last night by state police after lengthy questioning.

Woodridge is accused of slaying Nellie Ferrick, 43, whose nearly nude body was found last Friday near Kiamasha Lake in the Sullivan County resort area.

The woman's clothing was scattered around her body. Woodridge denied any attempt to assault the woman, a fellow employee at the Concord Hotel, a fashionable establishment at Kiamasha Lake.

Woodridge was seized in the Bronx as he got off a bus. Detectives said they picked him up because he was acting "suspiciously."

Police, who said Woodridge confessed slaying Miss Ferrick Thursday night, quoted him as saying: "Choked Her To Death"

"She flirted with another guy in Oscar's Tavern in South Fallsburgh. We got into a quarrel and started back to the Concord through a shortcut lane. I hit her. She screamed and ran. I caught up with her and choked her to death."

Woodridge also was quoted as saying he collected a week's pay Friday, hid out in a South Fallsburgh hotel until yesterday, then took the bus to New York. Police said he drew a map of the slaying scene.

Woodridge has had several dates with Miss Ferrick, who formerly lived in Shamokin, Pa., and recently had roomed at 408 W. 43rd St., Manhattan. He went to work at the Concord Hotel June 11, a day before Miss Ferrick got

Before being brought here from New York City last night, Woodridge was questioned by police about a slaying near his parents' home in Brooklyn. Police indicated they were satisfied he had no connection with the Brooklyn slaying.

Woodridge—nearly 6 feet tall, husky, blue-eyed and brown-haired—told authorities he had a medical discharge from the Navy and for a while he was a mental patient at the state hospital at Kings Park on Long Island.

STEEL STRIKE WOULD AFFECT U. S. INDUSTRIES

By JOHN MOODY

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The approach of the steel contract deadline raised a big question today: what would be the effect on other U.S. industries if a steel strike developed Saturday midnight?

For some, like autos and home appliances, a short strike would require only minor adjustments, an Associated Press survey shows. Other, like the oil and building construction industries, already are working with scant steel inventories. They would be affected almost immediately by a steel stoppage.

Some Reserves Built

Steelmen feel many customers began as early as last January to build up reserve supplies. Customers were fully aware of strike possibilities as well as inevitable increases in the price of steel.

Best available estimates are that a 30-to-60 day supply of steel of all kinds is on hand somewhere between the mills and the finished products. But this total tonnage estimate does not reflect the fact there is a critical shortage of some steel items now, and a possible surplus of others.

The canning industry, for one, says it has been preparing for the possibility of a steel strike. A spokesman for Continental Can Co. said: "If there is a steel strike, we'll be able to take care of all the needs of our customers for at least eight weeks."

KITCHENETTES WILL IMPROVE PLAYGROUND

Biglerville's "Kitchenettes" are planning further additions this summer to the community park they are developing in conjunction with the school board on land near the Biglerville schools.

Meeting Tuesday evening at Biglerville, the group developed plans for the placing of tables and fireplaces and the installation of a water fountain in the general area where already have been placed many types of playground equipment for the children.

The project, officers of the organization estimate, will cost the group about $6,000 when it is completed this summer. So far the Kitchenettes have spent about $4,500 in developing the play area.

Formed about five years ago, the Kitchenettes have paraded, held programs and affairs, dinners and other activities to raise the funds that are going into the development of what is becoming a Biglerville park.

During the winter months, the group purchased a large quantity of playground equipment, which the school board has placed near the elementary school. A macadam play area was also placed to provide for basketball courts—and the Kitchenettes plan for dances for the young folks and some not so young.

The two sliding boards, jungle gym, basketball court, swings, teeter totter, merry-go-round and see-saws were painted this week and now are being used by the children of the community. The painting was done by the school board which provides for the maintenance of the play area and members of the Kitchenettes report that "a beautiful job" was done.

The drinking fountain at the play center is to be installed in "the very near future" the Kitchenettes reported at their meeting Tuesday evening. Similarly the placing of tables and fireplaces is also scheduled this summer.

The Kitchenettes plan to hold some formal "opening" ceremonies at the play area as soon as the tables and fireplaces and other planned additional equipment is installed.

Following their meeting Tuesday evening the group toured The Gettysburg Times plant.

11 AIRMEN DIE; TANKER BURNS

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — Bursting into flame just seconds after take-off, a four-engine Air Force refueling tanker crashed and exploded last night, carrying 11 men to a fiery death.

The Boeing KC97 was loaded with highly inflammable fuel for a jet bomber refueling above southeastern New Mexico. It was based at nearby Walker Air Force Base.

Workers in the Walker tower said the plane took off "in good shape" at 6:50 p.m.

A few minutes later, the tower crew reported to base officials, the plane "appeared to burst into flames. It was too far away to tell whether the fire was in the engines or in the fuselage."

About 10 miles south of the base, the giant tanker, one of the Air Force's most modern refueling aircrafts, banked off, spun to the ground in an open field and exploded.

U. S. COMMIES STILL SHEEP IN RED PASTURE

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The leaders of the American Communist party, who have acted like arrogant shepherds toward their own members, are still sheep in the Russian pasture. Some of them may be shorn.

There is rising discontent in the party with this leadership which recently confessed to a whole series of disastrous mistakes over the past 10 years and now pretends to be surprised to hear Stalin was a dictator and murderer.

Party members, writing to their newspaper, the Daily Worker, charge dictatorship against the American leaders; directly against the old and ill chairman, William Z. Foster, indirectly against Secretary Eugene Dennis, the real boss, and others.

Had Okayed Stalin
The leadership itself has conceded the rank-and-file should have more say in the decisions which have been handed down from the top.

The top American Reds had approved every action of Stalin. Dennis recently acknowledged they looked upon Stalin as "infallible." Then Nikita Khrushchev, the Russian Communist boss, put them on the spot.

By revealing Stalin's one-man rule in all its horror, Khrushchev invited Communists everywhere to be self-critical and critical of one another. He left it up to them to figure out how critical.

As if helpless to know what to do or say until they got the clue from Moscow, the American Communist leaders kept silent for months after Khrushchev's revelations. This week the Central Committee finally spoke up.

It raised critical questions about the part played by Russia's new leaders in Stalin's usurpation of power and his crimes. But it did this only after the Italian, French and British Communists had asked the same questions.

"We... are shocked," the committee members said of the revelations. The delay in speaking up made them look afraid to take the lead in criticizing Russia or even knowing what to say or how far to go until others showed the way.

Since it was common knowledge for 20 years that Stalin had one-man rule and slaughtered people, the Central Committee, in saying it was shocked to hear all this, put itself in the position of being considered dumb or hypocritical. No one has accused the Reds of being dumb.

But Dennis himself provided another example of continued subservience to Russia. Almost as if saying, "Oh, thank you, sir," he expressed gratitude to Khrushchev for saying war is not inevitable.

The rank-and-file may be able to swallow the present leaders' history of disasters — the blind obedience to Stalin was not news to them — but it's hard to see how these leaders can keep their jobs and carry out the new line.

That line was laid down by Khrushchev: Everywhere Communist parties should try to look like national parties and form

NORMAL RELIEF PAYMENTS WILL BE CONTINUED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Secretary of Public Assistance Ruth Gregg Horting today went ahead with plans to continue relief payments as normal despite a 5 million dollar slash in the department's appropriations. Mrs. Horting said nothing is planned in the way of relief grant changes but conceded that her department will end up in the hole by next May 31.

"If the department's original estimates prove correct, we'll have to have a deficiency appropriation of 5 million dollars from the next legislature," she said.

A month ago Gov. Leader chopped 5 million dollars from the department's biennial grant in a move aimed at balancing the commonwealth's budget for the two-year fiscal period ending next May 31.

Mrs. Horting said a recent survey brought the decision not to change "present allowances" for the 242,000 relief recipients in Pennsylvania.

"If the second year of the biennium runs on the same level as the first, we will be hard put to maintain even our present inadequate allowances with no thought of raising them to a minimum standard of health and decency this biennium," said Mrs. Horting.

united fronts. How could the present U. S. leaders, already convicted of trying to teach overthrow of the government, be persuasive?

FPC Approves Gas Line Plans In Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Power Commission on Monday approved proposals by Texas Eastern Transmission Corp. and its subsidiary, Texas Eastern Pennsylvania Transmission Corp., both of Shreveport, La., to build natural gas pipeline facilities in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The facilities would cost $5,431,700.

The Penn-Jersey proposal calls for the construction of two 5,000 horsepower compression stations in Dauphin and Juniata counties in Pennsylvania to increase delivery capacity from 200 million to 300 million cubic feet daily. Texas Eastern plans to build two short pipeline loops in the Philadelphia area and a new 3,300-horsepower station near Linden, N.J.

The FPC authorized Texas Eastern to drop previously approved plans to install additional horsepower in compressor stations on the Big and Little Inch lines between Conneltsville and Phoenixville, Pa.

SMALL TALK AT TOMBS OF GREAT BY HST

By EDDY Gilmore
LONDON (AP)—Harry Truman visited the tombs of Britain's great Tuesday and said he wanted a short epitaph on his own grave.

"Yes, sir," he remarked to reporters. "I want them to put on mine 'He done his damndest.'"

Touring through St. Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey, the former U. S. president visited the tombs of the Duke of Wellington, Adm. Lord Nelson, Charles Dickens, Prime Minister Gladstone and others. At the historic Abbey Truman stared down at the cold, stone floor and commented: "Frankly, I'd rather be under the ground than under a stone floor like this. It would be a lot easier to get out when the great horn blows."

Truman stood silently several minutes before a tablet in St. Paul's erected to an American aviator, William Meade Lindsay Fiske III. A guide explained that Fiske, serving with the Royal Air Force, was the first U. S. officer to lose his life in Britain in World War II. He was killed Aug. 6, 1940.

Truman started his day with a walk along the River Thames during which not a Londoner recognized him. "It's inevitable," he laughed. "They're just forgetting me, I suppose."

Not a head turned in his direction. After a time he began stopping people and talking to them.

Target date for the assassination attempt was late July, officials reported, with simultaneous uprisings planned in Havana and 10 key cities.

"No Red Plot"
There was no suggestion of Communist involvement, however. And officials said former Cuban President Carlos Prío Socarras, now a refugee in Miami, also was not implicated.

First arrests here were made last Friday. Authorities said the names of 40 leaders had been obtained, but that many escaped a police dragnet after word of the roundup leaked out.

Police identified the top man arrested here as Fidel Castro, a fugitive from a 15-year Cuban sentence for leading a 1953 revolt against Batista.

— "not very profound" conversation about the weather and the river mostly, he said. Truman said it was the only time he could remember not being recognized in recent years while walking the streets of a big city. A reporter remarked that at 6 a.m. many people don't even recognize members of their own family, let alone former American presidents.

Russell Davies, first report on iodine in 1939, it has proved a useful antiseptic against bacteria, viruses, fungi, protozoa, yeasts and spores! Deodorized and non-irritating! Iodine Antiseptic is an aqueous solution containing polyvinylpyrrolidone-iodine complex (PVP-I) as the active ingredient.

As a topical antiseptic, it has been under clinical observation for over three years and used on more than 3,971 patients in the Outpatient Department and Inpatient Services of a leading New York hospital, as well as in Private Practice. No clinical signs of irritation of healing or iodine burn have been reported — even when bandaged.

It is felt that the non-selective, broad spectrum activity of iodine makes it a valuable adjunct in both hospital and private practice.

PRO-AMERICANS LOSE GROUND IN ICELAND VOTING

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (P)—Two parties that campaigned on a joint platform to get U. S. troops out of Iceland won 25 seats in Sunday's parliamentary elections — two short of the number required to form a government. Official returns were issued Tuesday.

These parties—the Progressives and the Social Democrats—now face the task of shopping for other partners in an effort to put together a coalition commanding a majority in the 52-seat Althing — Parliament.

Both gained seats in the elections, and so did the Communists, while the pro-American independence Conservative party of Premier Olafur Thors lost ground. The returns showed the Progressives won 17 seats, a gain of one over their membership in the last Althing. The Social Democrats won 8 seats, compared with their previous total of 6.

Communists Gain One
The Independence Conservative party's representation dropped from 21 seats to 19.
The Communists moved up from 7 to 8. The National Defense party virtually went out of existence. It was opposed to both the United States and the Soviet Union. The party got no seats at all.

Thors had held power with an uneasy coalition of Conservatives and Progressives. Elections were forced when the Progressives pushed a resolution through the Althing calling for the removal of U. S. troops from the big NATO base at Keflavik.

A battalion of 4,000 U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force men is stationed at the base, manning a listening post for the early warning radar system fronting the Soviet Union's northern borders.

Sources here reported Progressive leader Herman Joannsson was ready to try to form a coalition government on the basis that he had not intended to have the Americans completely ousted. These informants said a compromise was in the works to amend the defense treaty. This would call for a reduction in the size of the U. S. force and an elimination of a source of domestic friction by payment of an Iceland duty on all goods imported for use of base personnel, including alcohol and cigarettes.

ITALIAN ADDICTS CHARGED
ROME (P)—Police have announced the filing of narcotics charges against 21 persons, including four titled men prominent in Italian high society and a leading actor.

BOOTLEGGER'S CUSTOMER LIST IS IMPOUNDED

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Samuel Sheikman pleaded no defense on Monday to charges of bribery and violating state laws by bringing huge supplies of untaxed liquor into this state from New Jersey. The prosecution alleged that he sold the liquor to a large and exclusive set of customers.

After the 57-year-old Sheikman entered his plea, Judge John Morgan Davis impounded the defendant's secret business records, reported to contain the names of more than 1,000 customers.

The judge's impounding of documentation which was part of the official court record was unusual. He explained that he did so to avoid the possibility of doing an injustice to persons whose names appeared on the records.

Amounts To Confession
Jacob Kalish, assistant district attorney, said Sheikman's plea amounted to one of guilty.

Sheikman did not actually admit guilt, but subjected himself to a conviction, as if he had pleaded guilty. He does, however, have the right to deny the charges in later proceedings. These charges are bribery of two liquor agents, corrupt solicitation and unlawful possession on untaxed liquor.

At the conclusion of the brief hearing, Judge Davis granted a four-day delay before sentencing. Counsel for Sheikman said he would submit to the court medical records concerning the defendant's health and that this report might have a bearing on the sentence.

Drop "Small Fry"
Charges against a codefendant, Samuel Fishman, 55, a Philadelphia tavernkeeper and a cousin of Sheikman, were dismissed by the district attorney's office. Kalish said it was decided to take this action because Fishman was only "small fry" whereas Sheik-

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. Planders (R-Vt.) proposed Tuesday that West Germany open direct negotiations with Moscow for German reunification.

He conceded in a speech prepared for the Senate that this was a "drastic" suggestion at direct variance with Eisenhower administration policy.

man was the "kingpin" of the liquor running traffic. The charges against Fishman were identical with those against Sheikman. The judge's impounding order in Quarter Sessions Court extended for the time being even to city tax officials who want to see the list of names for possible tax claims. The judge told Revenue Commissioner Morton E. Rotman to file a petition setting forth his reasons for wanting to examine the records.

M'CARTHY AND WHITE HOUSE AIDE TANGLE

WASHINGTON (P)—White House aide Maxwell Rabb declined Tuesday to testify before the Senate Investigations subcommittee. Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) called his refusal "inexcusably arrogant" conduct that the Senate should punish as contempt.

Rabb, secretary to the Cabinet, sent word "there is nothing I can add" to his denial of Monday that he or any of his staff "leaked" official documents to author Robert J. Donovan.

He said "I must respectfully decline" to comply with an invitation that he come in and make that statement under oath, and also tell whether he knows who did give the information to Donovan.

The subcommittee is trying to learn how Donovan obtained "secret documents and materials" about Cabinet meetings for a book he has written about the Eisenhower administration.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), the subcommittee chairman, did not immediately rule on McCarthy's demand that the subcommittee subpoena Rabb.

McCarthy said the subcommittee should do this and itself "determine the punishment" without referring the case to the Justice Department if Rabb again declines to testify.

McClellan said it is obvious that Donovan must have had access to minutes of Cabinet meetings and other official documents in writing his book, "The Inside Story."

McCarthy said the book quotes Atty. Gen. Brownell as having made some "scurrilous" references to McCarthy. McCarthy said that if Brownell was quoted correctly, "he is guilty of a deliberate misstatement."

McClellan said Brownell should be invited before the subcommittee to say whether he was correctly quoted.

McClellan directed that the subcommittee staff write Brownell at once asking about the statements, which the chairman said "amount to a charge" against McCarthy.

ASK INDICTMENT OF 5 EMPLOYEES

WASHINGTON, Pa. (P)—Judge George T. Cummins has ordered the district attorney to prepare indictments against five employees of the State Department of Highways on charges of election law violations.

A Washington County grand jury Monday recommended the indictments in a presentment at the end of its investigation into election law irregularities within the Highways Department. The probe was set off by Judge Cummins who said he had reports of political macing prior to last April's primary election.

Judge Cummins ordered Dist. Atty. Michael Hanna to prepare the indictments for the August

Grand jury. Named in the presentment are Joseph Abate, Burgettstown, Washington County highway superintendent, and assistant supervisors Howard Selton of Robinson Twp., Henry Zmini of Carroll Twp., Otto Verderber of Canton Twp., and Julius Butera of Fredericktown.

The grand jury questioned 96 witnesses who are present or former employees of the State Highways Department.

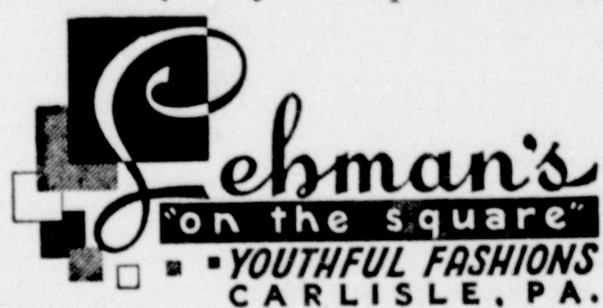

It said it uncovered evidence that some employees of the department had been forced to contribute funds to the "state adminis-

BLIND MAN

CHICAGO (AP) — Although dice games are illegal in Chicago, Police Commissioner Timothy O'Connor has made special dispensation for Raymond Di Giulio.
He was caught at two recent police raids on dice games but released when it was found he was blind, the result of injuries suffered during Army service in North Africa during World War II. Di Giulio, 38, says he doesn't participate in the games but goes there to talk to friends.

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP) — Fred Strahsburg has a half-block-long fence that he likes. His neighbors think it is an eyesore and are trying to get it removed. It is made of a thousand mop handles, painted a myriad colors.

SUPER-SELLING JOB IS DONE BY GENERAL LEMAY

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Curtis LeMay, the stocky, cigar-chewing boss of the Strategic Air Command whose long-range bombers would have the job of hitting Russia at once if war came, has done a super-selling job.

He urged the senators to vote more money for the Air Force—mostly for his command—than President Eisenhower, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of the Air Force Quarles said was necessary.

The senators accepted the judgment of LeMay and voted the money yesterday.

"First Line Of Defense"

When Secretary of State Dulles boasts that the Russians are dissuaded from war by this country's "deterrent power," he's talking of the ability of LeMay's long-range bombers to reach Russia and retaliate with nuclear bombs.

LeMay's command—called SAC—is this country's first line of defense. It would also be the first line of defense for American allies in Europe and elsewhere.

The 49-year-old LeMay—carefully prepared with facts, figures and forebodings—alarmed the senators when he testified before them this year on the needs of SAC if this country hoped to keep abreast of the Russians.

If war started tomorrow, he said, this country would win it. But he said by 1959—the way things are going now—the Soviets would have the superior strategic air force, meaning long-range bombers capable of hitting this country.

Down LeMay's Alley

During the next three years, he said, the Soviets will have "twice as many" heavy bombers as the United States. This got a quick reaction. Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.)

called at once for "several billions" more in Air Force funds.

This was right down LeMay's alley. He asked the Senate for four billion dollars more than the Eisenhower administration requested. The Senate didn't buy LeMay's full figures but yesterday voted the Air Force nearly an extra billion.

The bulk of this money—to be spread over several years and to assure production—is intended for making the B52, this country's long-range jet bomber, which costs about eight million dollars apiece.

The current rate of B52 production is six a month. Before LeMay was through testifying the Pentagon said this rate would be increased. And, before the Senate voted yesterday, the Air Force raised from 500 to 600 its goal of B52s by 1959.

House Must Agree

Eisenhower had asked Congress for about 15½ billion dollars for the Air Force. The House voted just under that figure. The Senate vote boosted it to 16½ billion. About five billion of Eisenhower's 15½ billion was intended for LeMay's strategic command next year.

The extra billion voted by the Senate will not stand unless the House also agrees to it. If not, there will have to be a compromise. But even if both House and Senate agree, the Air Force may not get to use that extra billion.

Eisenhower may decline to use it, just as President Truman once refused to spend more Air Force money than he thought it needed in his day, even though Congress voted it.

New Citrus Groves Boost Florida Crop

LAKE ALFRED, Fla. (AP)—So many new citrus groves have been planted in Florida in the last two years, the State Plant Board reported, that orange planting stock has been used up.

Charles Poucher of the plant board said some nurseries are sold out of pineapple and Valencia orange stocks through next November.

Thousands of acres of new groves have been set out in the citrus section of central Florida in recent months, most of them oranges, Poucher says.
